TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS URGED TO ACT

Townships which have not adopted regulations for real estate developments within their townships and have not adopted sanitation ordinances should "do so immediately—and I don't mean in six months or a year, but immediately," H. A. "Cappy" Thomson, Upper Darby, 70-year-old state secretary of the state Supervisors' Association, told the 43rd annual convention of the Township Supervisors, Auditors, Assessors and Tax Collectors Association of Adams County at its morning session at the court house today.

The convention continues this afternoon at the court house following dinner at the Methodist church.

"Most of you have developments underway in your townships right now and they can spell trouble for you if you don't control them. If you set down the rules and regulations for developments in your township, applying to your entire township, then not only you, but the builders will know what is required. Recently I was called to a township where the supervisors were worried because the beautiful new streets they took over from the developer were falling apart. They found there was nothing under the black top. When I got there I asked about sewage. The supervisors said every house in this area of $35,000 homes was connected to a sewer. I asked where it went. The supervisors didn't know. We went in search and found 110 houses connected to a six by six septic. The supervisors think they have trouble now because the streets are already falling apart. Think of what's going to happen during the heat of next summer when that septic tank's discharge into the woods becomes as odorous as it is going to be. I was called to another township where the supervisors allowed a developer to sell 25 by 100 feet lots, with a well and a septic tank on each lot. That is simply neglect on the part of the supervisors.

URGES PLANNING

"The state health department wants to take over the approval of all real estate developments."

Highways Turn Very Treacherous

After a light rain fell at dusk Monday evening and froze, Adams County highways turned "very treacherous."

Although the air temperatures remained near 40 degrees, many sections of highways held their thin, smooth coat of ice for hours and slowed traffic to a crawl.

The State Highway Department sent out 24 trucks and 72 men to spread antiskid materials on hills, curves, intersections and grade crossing approaches. They worked through the night and late this morning a few trucks continued on that assignment.

Superintendent Clyde O. Garber said the ice patches occurred generally throughout the area and were apparently due to the below-freezing temperature of the ground which has been frozen for weeks.

SNOWBALLS ON POLICE AUTO BRING ARREST

A sloshy snowball against the windshield of the car of Cumberland Twp. Policeman Bernard V. Miller Sr. led to arrest of John Shaner, 34 E. Water St., on three charges about 11:30 o'clock Monday night.

Miller had received a call from some motorists who said some men in a car were driving around throwing snowballs against windshields of cars going the opposite direction. Officer Miller started his search and soon found his own windshield was the target for a snowball. Officer Miller turned and followed the car but it soon disappeared down an alley in Gettysburg and he lost contact.

Miller turned around and went on patrol on the Baltimore pike in his township. Again a huge snowball smashed into his window. This time he spun his car around and the chase began, across Hunt Ave., down through the parking lot at the National Museum to Steinwehr Ave. When the Shaner car came out of the driveway to the National Museum lot it cut immediately in front of a state police car, which joined the chase.

Shaner turned into the Colt Park area and the officers followed and stopped Shaner there.

Shaner and companions admitted there had been some snowball throwing. Officer Miller said, but none would admit being the thrower. Officer Miller then proceeded to "throw" reckless driving and failing to stop at a stop sign charges against Shaner and state police "threw" a failure to yield the right of way charge against Shaner.

Police said the Miller car skidded into the path of a car operated by Gwynn Yingling, 20, Hanover. Damage to the Miller car was estimated at $500 and to the Yingling car at $450.

After the collision a car operated by Rodney Smith, 19, Hanover R. 4, collided with the Yingling vehicle, but was not damaged.

Arthur Soullard, Hanover R. 4, was hospitalized when he was struck by a panel truck when he got out of his pickup truck to check the stalled vehicle in Brush-town Saturday at 8 p.m.

Soullard was taken to the Hanover Hospital where he was treated for chest injuries. He was discharged Sunday.

Conewago Twp. police said Soullard's wife, Mrs. Julia A. Soullard, was treated at the hospital for bruises of the chest and discharged.

Police said the driver of the truck was Francis L. Bennett, 46, of Gettysburg R. 5. Damage to Soullard's pickup truck was estimated by police at $200 and to the panel truck, owned by Bennett's Green Grocery, Hanover, at $400.

Heavy Holiday Accident Toll Is Below Estimates

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic accidents over the long Christmas weekend took a heavy toll of lives, averaging six an hour, but it was below the pre-holiday estimate of 510.

The number killed in the three-day holiday period also may be the lowest for a comparable Christmas weekend in 11 years.

Safety experts were hopeful because reports of traffic fatalities would hold the final count under last year's total of 493. That was the lowest toll for a three-day Christmas period since 1949 when the total was 413.

22 ACCIDENTAL DEATHS IN PA. OVER HOLIDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Twenty-two persons, including five children who perished in a Christmas Day fire, died in accidents in Pennsylvania during the holiday period.

The toll was the lowest for the year—one below the 23 who died over the New Year holiday weekend and that ushered in 1960.

The traffic total of 11 was the lowest for a holiday period this year.

In addition to the five fire deaths there were six fatalities in other types of accidents.

5 CHILDREN DIE
The fire victims were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard DuPont of Feasterville, Bucks County. They were Robert 5; Helen, 6; Melanie, 8; Katherine, 10; and Margaret, 12. They died of asphyxiation. The fire broke out while the parents were attending a midnight mass.

One double fatal traffic accident was reported 14 miles from Uniontown. Mrs. Ida Conaway, 61, of Markleysburg, and Pat Sue Morton, 19, of Layland, W. Va., were killed in a two-car collision.

The other victims: Philadelphia — Mrs. Elizabeth Hurwitz, 60, of Camden, N. J., hit by a car Friday night while crossing Broad St.

LANSDALE — Mrs. Evelyn B. Smith, 36, of Lansdale, killed Saturday when her car skidded on an icy patch near here and hit a pole. A 13-year-old daughter was injured.

Natrona Heights — Dennis R. Crisman, 44, of Brackenridge, Allegheny County, crushed to death Saturday when the bed of a cinder truck he was repairing fell on him. He was a father of five.

Hamburg — Harold F. Kirk, 19, of Shoemakersville, Berks County, killed Saturday when his car skidded on a patch of ice and hit a guard rail near that Berks County community.

Pittsburgh — Donald A. Parks, 30, of Dennison, Ohio, found dead of carbon monoxide poisoning Saturday in his rented room. Authorities said he apparently suffocated on fumes from an unvented gas stove his landlady had warned him not to use. Parks, who had five children, was in Pittsburgh looking for work.

Scranton — Patrolman Dominick Paparella, 63, struck by a car Sunday while directing traffic for a midnight Christmas Mass at St. Mary's Church near here. He was the brother of Joe Paparella, an American League baseball umpire.

Pittsburgh — Stanley Pavinich, 69, of Pittsburgh, struck by a train Saturday while walking through a Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad tunnel.

Harrisburg — John C. Dare, about 50, of Harrisburg, died Saturday night in a hospital 30 minutes after he was hit by a car at

He died at Memorial Hospital Monday of leukemia. His home was at Galeta, Md.

TOWNSHIP

They have come to me and asked if the state supervisors' association would approve a bill permitting the health department to be granted the right to give approval where township supervisors fail to accept that responsibility. That's a pretty hard thing to argue against. This is a growing movement and only one way to stop it—you must do the job yourself, and properly.

"I recommend that each township set up a planning commission. It will help every township. But we must get some legislation concerning annexation. What good will it do a planning commission to do a thorough job of planning and then find the heart annexed out of their township by a nearby borough or city. Townships must have the right to exist and secure protection from annexation."

OPPOSES CIVIL SERVICE

State Senator-elect D. Elmer Hawbaker urged the supervisors to help "reverse the trend toward the bureaucrats setting the policy and the elected officials, the supervisors and school directors, carrying it out. Local government is the basis of our democracy. It is people in a township elected to do a job for the township and if they don't do it, they are voted out. But we are finding more and more that Harrisburg bureaucrats are issuing the specifications and giving the approvals, not the locally-elected people. The policy should be set by the elected people and the employees should carry out those directives, not vice versa. That is why I am opposed to a Civil Service. We are setting up a class of untouchables who can't be changed in any way—whether they do the job they are supposed to or not.

In his talk, Thomson termed the municipal authorities set up to build schools, sewage plants, etc., "Frankensteins created by the legislature to circumvent the constitution" and held that the "people of the state are paying between 25 and 50 million more in interest annually than they would have to pay if the governments were able to borrow realistically instead of through authorities."

McNear later paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, beside whose home the accident occurred, on a charge of driving too fast for conditions. McNear told the justice he was enroute to visit his grandparents in Harrisburg when his car started skidding and left the highway.

Saturday afternoon two persons were injured and damage totaled $500 when two autos collided 2½ miles south of here at the intersection of a National Park maintained road and the Emmitsburg Pike.

5 Children In Family Of Six Suffocate In Xmas Eve Fire

FEASTERVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A Christmas tree, its lights dimmed, Bright packages that never will be opened by the persons for whom they were intended.

And the smell of smoke throughout a trim, one and a half story bungalow in a residential section of this tiny, Bucks County community.

All silent reminders of a Christmas tragedy that took the lives of five small children.

Four of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. DuPont died in first floor bedrooms. A fifth died upstairs. None was touched by the fire that burned briefly and fiercely in the bungalow as the elder DuPonts attended a midnight Christmas mass.

TOLD BY PRIEST

The DuPonts, the husband, 37, and his wife, 35, were unaware of any special meaning to the sirens they heard as they sat in a pew at the nearby Church of the Assumption of the Blessed Mary.

It wasn't until a priest quietly summoned them from a pew that they learned the horrible message of the sirens' wail.

Dead of asphyxiation, despite efforts of neighbors who saved one other DuPont child, were Margaret, 12, Katherine, 10, Melanie, 8, Helen, 6, and Robert, 5.

Laurie, 11, was saved by a neighbor who raised a ladder to the upper floor where she had been sleeping. It was her screams that first attracted aid.

HOUSE FILLED WITH SMOKE

She said that she awakened to find that "everything was white." She referred to thick, white smoke. She said she found Margaret in a dazed condition on the first floor. It was hard, almost impossible to breathe, she said.

Laurie said she flung open a window and tried to get Robert's head up to it so he could breathe. She tugged but could not lift him high enough.

The children's father said Monday that "only our faith in God has sustained us (him and his wife). God needed angels and he took them. He left us Laurie."

Meanwhile, Fire Chief Robert Price said the flames apparently started when heat from an air duct pipe of the basement oil heater set fire to a combustible material stored over the pipe.

A SMALL FIRE

It was a small fire in terms of damage to the building. A loss of only about $4,800, said Fire Marshal Fred K. Hibbs. Only a portion of the basement and kitchen were seared by the flames.

The Christmas tree, the packages, untouched.

Five small coffins were being sent today to Holyoke, Mass., from where the DuPont family had moved a few years ago.

Funeral services for the five who died in the small fire will be held there Thursday.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Gave $20,000 To The College:
One gift of $15,000 and two of $2,500 each were announced by President Granville of Gettysburg College at a banquet of the Harrisburg Gettysburg Club at the Commonwealth Hotel in the former city on Monday evening.

The gift of $15,000 was made by Burton F. Blough a successful manufacturer in the Capital City who several years ago paid for the construction of the running track and other improvements on Nixon Field. The money is to be used towards the establishment of an engineering course in the local institution.

More Hope For The Cyclorama:

That the proposition of bringing the cyclorama to Gettysburg and establishing it in a permanent handsome building is not a thing of the past was declared to a representative of this paper by a director in the company which owns the painting.

It will be remembered that a year or more ago it was reported that an option had been secured on the Cobean-Tawney corner for the erection of this building in which to house the world's most famous exhibit for the battle. The project lay dormant for a while and later Gettysburg people became interested in it and were placed upon the board of directors and given important offices.

Christmas Day in Gettysburg:
Christmas was celebrated in Gettysburg with services and customs that were more beautiful and impressive than ever before.

Scarcely had the midnight hour on Saturday been announced when a company of women and men appeared on the streets of town and walked about to various sections singing the old familiar hymns of the Christmas season. The beautiful custom was inaugurated a year ago and is one of the prettiest ways of celebrating Christmas which Gettysburg has ever had. A midnight service was held in the Episcopal church.

Big Demand For One Cent Stamps: During the eight days preceding Christmas twenty four thousand one cent stamps were sold at the local post office and the largest Christmas business handled for many years.

The incoming mail was materially larger than in other years and required rapid work on the part of the employees to handle all without delay. Substitute carrier Henry Garlach and substitute clerk Jesse Snyder helped with the work and all was gotten through in good shape though Thursday and Friday were exceptionally heavy days in the outgoing mail Friday and Saturday being the busiest in the incoming.

Blew Into Lamp — Oil Exploded: The explosion of a coal oil lamp at the home of Edward A. Weaver on West High Street threatened serious injury to Mrs. Weaver and disastrous consequences to the residence.

Mrs. Weaver was at her home in the evening when a coal oil lamp started to smoke and when she tried to turn down the wick was unsuccessful. She then blew into the chimney with such force that the flame was blown into the bowl of the lamp, the oil blazing up and burning Mrs. Weaver severely about the face. Her hair was slightly singed and her eyebrows and eyelashes burned.

New York Girls Hiking This Way: Automobileists, motor cyclists, bicyclists and male pedestrians have passed through Gettysburg over the national highway, and now two pretty girls are to start on a trip from New York to Tampa, Florida, the New York World says: "Two Young women of contrasting color scheme—one being blonde and the other a brunette—will start the morning after New Year's for a tramp to Tampa, Florida. They will set out from No. 215 Cevert street, the home of Miss Dora Harrison, the brunette, known as Evergreen. The blonde

Today's Talk

COLLECT PEOPLE
As we walk further into life, the people we meet along the way mean so much more to us. When we start out we take them for granted. But soon we begin to draw on them. We see things in them that we lack and want. And so, like the mixing of one fluid with another, we become a part of them and they a part of us.

What you are is mostly what a score or a hundred—or a thousand—other people have already been.

I ran into a friend recently who told me he began years ago to keep a list of interesting and helpful people whom he had met. He then said he now has a list of more than 4,000 names, and that in this list are those who have inspired him through his business career and brought happiness to him in his personal life.

What finer business could one be in than collecting people?

Material losses, after all, are but temporary. But when we lose a friend—because of God's will, or because of a misunderstanding—it seems as though the whole world shrinks a little.

I never tire of people. Even the worst have some good in them! It's because we are all both good and bad—and feel the warmth of other people's urge behind every pulse beat that is ours.

I have learned one thing about people at least. It is this—if you have a friend the best way to keep him, or her, is to see the good that is there and let the rest alone.

Better than the collecting of antiques, art, "first editions," or anything, is to collect people—and then bind them to you with ropes of love and service in their behalf!

Just Folks

PEACE
Peace is of the heart and mind
And not of things.
Though in possession pride we find,
No more it brings.

One can be rich and out of touch
With friendly ways,
Who is content with owning much,
Off lonely stays.

By war no lasting peace is won;
That ends in hate.
'Tis earned by faith to journey on
When doubt seems great.

Peace is belief in all mankind,
Is much that's good,
And dedicating heart and mind
To brotherhood.

REFLECTIONS ON CHRISTMAS SHOW IT WILL COME AGAIN

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It has all gone away.

Santa Claus has parked his reindeer everywhere without a traffic ticket, then flighted on. The Christmas goose—excuse me, was it a turkey in your house?—has assumed the bony architecture of a lean reminder.

The turmoil of previous presentiment has abated to the echo of remembrance.

What has been done?

EVERY PAGE WISTFUL

Why, across the wide landscape of human impossibility nothing has been done. The human dream remains as uninterrupted by realization as before.

So one can feel.
Is there another choice?

There is.
One can feel that the opposite is true. One in the sentimentality of the season may decide that his hopes are as alive and as arrogant in December as they were in April. People make every page of the calendar wistful by their dreams.

RUBBED MONUMENTS

And why shouldn't they?

Santa Claus has come and gone now, after an immortal ride, and most living rooms are rubbed monuments of his passing.

The toys of yesterday's surprise are strewn about the room in postures of lean joy and angular dismemberment.

There is a lonesomeness after Christmas that is hard for both child and grownup to escape. It is the human price of the exposure to concentrated pleasure.

It has all gone away . . . the planning . . . the waiting . . . the morning look in the children's eyes . . . the confiding to Santa . . . the faith that allows no faltering.

It has all gone away.

CAN'T REALLY LOSE IT

Will we be able to find it again, the tumult of belonging from yesterday?

Yes, how can we lose it?

How can we be absent-minded to grandeur or blind to glory? We wonder every year if we will again find Christmas—but we always do, somehow.

It has all gone away.
It has done this before.
It always has come back next year.

Nobody can really lose Christmas who wants it.

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is planning a personal peace crusade in 1961 that might take him to Red China, a London newspaper said Saturday.

Macmillan is considering inviting Soviet Premier Khrushchev to talks in London, the newspaper.

Seek Old Man In Apartment Scheme

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Police today sought a little, slender, gray-haired man of about 50 who lured six persons to his French Quarter apartment and robbed them.

He booby-trapped his victims by advertising the apartment for rent. When prospects telephoned, he spread appointments over a period of several hours Monday.

When the apartment hunters appeared, one or two at a time, he handed them a note which read, "It's a stickup. Open your mouth or cause me trouble, and I shoot you instantly. Obey orders and you won't get hurt."

In all, the robber got $309 in cash and a wrist watch valued at $140, as well as personal papers in the wallets.

COUPLE DIE IN FIRE AT HOME

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — An elderly couple died in a fire today which swept their 2½-story brick home as they slept.

W. Edwin Jacob and his wife, Bernice, both about 70, were found by Bethlehem firemen.

A daughter, Marjorie, about 40, fell or jumped from the second floor window. She was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital with back injuries.

The fire was discovered by Pamela Hudak, 17, who lived next door to the Jacob family. She was awakened by a crackling noise which she at first thought was ice falling from the roof. Then she heard the screams of Marjorie, opened a blind and saw the flame. She summoned firemen.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started on the first floor, either in the living room or dining room, in the front of the house. It burned up an open stairway, firemen said, to the second floor where Jacob and his wife were sleeping. Jacob was a retired Bethlehem Steel Corp. salesman.

Cause of the fire was under investigation.

PSEA ASKING MORE FUNDS FOR SCHOOLS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania State Education's Legislative Committee says it is imperative for the 1961 Legislature to grant more money for schools.

"We insist that in this session of the General Assembly the Commonwealth recognize its responsibility to teachers and increased appropriations to the local school districts," said the committee in its report.

The committee, headed by Joseph Siegmund, Coraopolis, printed its report in preparation for the PSEA's 108th convention, which starts tonight.

FAILED IN 1959

The legislative group proposed that the PSEA re-submit proposals to raise teachers' salaries by some $16.5 per year and increase state subsidies by almost $100 million annually.

Similar proposals were presented to the 1959 session but were unsuccessful.

The report pointed out that some specific and far-reaching proposals were expected from Gov. Lawrence's special education study committee.

ASK TEACHER BOOST

"It may be that some of these proposals may exceed the recommendations that appear in this report," it added. "In such instances we shall gladly support them."

The PSEA plan calls for automatic annual pay raises of $300 for seven years for teachers with a standard teachers certificate. Teachers with a bachelor's degree would get the annual boosts for nine years and those with master's degrees would continue receiving the increments for 11 years.

The subsidy increase proposal calls for state aid to be figured on the basis of $9,000 per teaching unit instead of the present maximum of $5,800.

Other legislative proposals to be submitted to the convention delegates include:

A $300 million increase each year for the next three years in

Group Will Study Depressed Areas

WASHINGTON (AP)—The task force on depressed areas meets late today to work out specific proposals to hand President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., scheduled a closed session of the committee to prepare formal recommendations for Kennedy.

The seven subcommittees of the Douglas group held meetings earlier this month to prepare their separate proposals. Their conclusions have not been announced.

The committee named by Kennedy soon after his election is made up of 23 members representing 12 states. Kennedy has promised to take some action to ease economic problems in west Virginia within 60 days after his Jan. 20 inauguration. The committee plans to make recommendations covering depressed areas all throughout the country.

Omit Race, Color References In Forms

NEW YORK (AP)—"Race or color" references will be omitted from birth certificates on all babies born in New York City after New Year's Day.

The city will become the first community in the United States to adopt this policy, Health Commissioner Leona Baumgartner said Monday.

The action was taken following protests that color or race information could be used to discriminate against minority groups.

However, the Board of Health will keep the color or race items in confidential medical records of each birth. This will permit public health workers and scientists to make necessary racial and ethnic studies.

the ceiling of the state subsidized school construction program.

An increase in reimbursable construction costs from $1,100 to $1,200 per pupil for elementary schools and from $1,700 to $2,000 for each secondary student.

Liberalized teacher pension benefits.

Increased salaries and legislative civil service for Department of Public Instruction employees.

The PSEA represents about 61,000 of the state's 80,000 public school teachers.

UNION LEADER STEALS FUNDS, PLAYS HORSES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Theodore P. O'Keefe has been charged with embezzling $18,392 over the past three years from the State Council of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

A warrant was issued Friday. O'Keefe, 54, was secretary-treasurer of the council since 1943, but was discharged approximately a month ago. He received a salary of $225 a week plus expenses.

PLAYED HORSES

According to Assistant District Attorney Jack M. Myers' O'Keefe gambled as much as $200 a day on horse races. He allegedly covered his losses by altering the figures in bank statements and union records before other officials inspected them, Myers said.

Officials became suspicious in October when O'Keefe failed to appear with his books at an annual council meeting at Scranton.

AUDIT PROMPTED ARREST

Leading to O'Keefe's arrest was an audit prompted by a $10,000 check sent by the state council to the union's national headquarters and returned for lack of funds.

The check that bounced was intended to reimburse national headquarters for a portion of O'Keefe's salary.

The national office paid O'Keefe directly and then the state council would repay national headquarters.

Eagles Win First NFL Title In Eleven Years By Beating Packers 17-13

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles have their first National Football League title in 11 years and they did it by coming up with the big stopper on defense, clutch passing by Norm Van Brocklin and rookie Ted Dean's 58-yard kickoff return on a newly installed play.

The Eagles, a Cinderella team which rose from last in 1958 to second last year and the Eastern Conference crown this season came from behind Monday for the eighth time in 12 games this season to defeat Green Bay 17-13 for the world championship.

For Coach Buck Shaw and Van Brocklin, both retiring, it marked the greatest moment in their long and colorful football careers. Sports writers voted Van Brocklin, 34, the outstanding player of the game.

FIRST TIME FOR SHAW

Shaw, 61, who installed the play which led to the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter, said after the game: "You can't go any further than this." It was Shaw's first title in 12 years of coaching professional football.

"The defense did a great job," said Shaw. "They got the job done when they had to."

For Green Bay, a last-place team like the Eagles just two seasons ago, it was a day of heart-break. The final gun sounded with the Packers on the Eagles' 9-yard line where iron-man Chuck Bednarik, who played outstandingly for almost 60 minutes, had stopped fullback Jim Taylor.

PACKERS LED TWICE

The Packers, the Western Conference champions, twice led in the game watched by a sellout crowd of 67,325 which paid the largest gate in NFL championship history. The game was televised nationally.

Green Bay led 6-0 on field goals of 20 and 23 yards by Paul Hornung, but the Eagles struck like lightning in the second quarter, going from their own 43 for a touchdown on just two pass plays.

Van Brocklin, a 12-year veteran who played in four previous championships while with Los Angeles, connected with Tommy McDonald for 22 yards, then hit the slippery slot back again with a 35-yard touchdown strike. Bobby Walston added the extra point to put the Eagles ahead 7-6.

CLINCHER IN LAST QUARTER

The Eagles increased the lead to 10-6 when Walston booted a 15-yard field goal set up by Van Brocklin passes of 41 yards to Pete Retzlaff and 22 yards to Dean.

The real clincher, however, came after the Packers had taken a 13-10 lead on a seven-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee in the fourth quarter. That was Dean's five-yard touchdown run which he set up himself with a kickoff return to the Packers' 39 right after Green Bay's final score.

The kickoff return play was a new one Shaw installed last week after receiving scouting reports from assistants.

TURNING POINT EARLY

"Only for that runback (by Dean) we probably would have held them," said Packers coach Vince Lombardi. "That gave the Eagles the big lift and we couldn't stop them. Dean certainly had great blocking on the big run."

Shaw indicated that the turning point of the game was in the first quarter when Philadelphia held the Packers on the Eagles' 5-yard line and a few moments later when they halted a drive on the 8, forcing the Packers to settle for three points on the 20-yard field goal by Hornung.

The Eagles, in winning their first world title since they defeated Los Angeles in 1949, received $5,116 for each player. The losers share was $3,105 a man. Gross receipts, including radio and television rights, were $747,376. The record for the winning players' share was $4,718 by the Baltimore Colts in 1953.

FRAISES VAN BROCKLIN

Shaw explained that on the kickoff play Dean starts down the middle, then cuts to his left with Eagles' linemen double-teaming two of the Packers' fast men up front, thus causing a lane between them for Dean to run through.

Lombardi also singled out Van Brocklin for praise.

Lombardi Going Back To Green Bay

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi is hoping mad over persistent reports that he plans to leave the Packers and succeed Jim Lee Howell as head mentor of the New York Giants.

"I'll be going back to Green Bay," Lombardi snapped Monday after the Packers had dropped a 17-13 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in the National Football League championship showdown.

"Let's not have any talk like that," he added as he turned his back on a writer who put the question to him.

Lombardi, a former offensive coach with the Giants, took over at Green Bay and rebuilt the Packers in two seasons. He has three years to run on a five-year contract.

SHAW CAREER AS PRO GRID COACH ENDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Eagles have won a championship and lost what most observers regard as the heart of their ball club—Coach Buck Shaw and Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin.

Both repeated after Monday's 17-13 victory over Green Bay for the National Football League championship that they were retiring from the game. But Van Brocklin said he would like to stay in football in a non-playing capacity while Shaw said he would be responsive to being a consultant or advisor.

And the Eagles—or at least the public—still must hear from the other big man who makes the team run, 35-year-old Chuck Bednarik, the iron man who twice has announced retirement only to change his mind.

SHAW DEFINITE

Actually, the Eagles may only lose Shaw. Van Brocklin is considered a candidate to succeed him as coach of the champions. "This is for sure. I'm all through," said the 61-year-old Shaw in the Eagles' dressing room. "Coaching isn't conducive to my health at my age."

More exuberant, Van Brocklin exclaimed, "What a way to go out. I can't think of a better way. Man, there just isn't a better way. This is the climax."

For Shaw, the victory marked the end of 39 years coaching, 12 with the pros. For nine years he was boss of the San Francisco 49ers and during this period Van Brocklin befriended him as quarterback for the Los Angeles Rams, with whom he started pro ball in 1949.

CLIMAXED THIS YEAR

Shaw had a 71-39-4 mark with the 49ers, then helped establish the Air Force Academy in major college football ranks before "retiring." His old friend, General Manager Vince McNally of the Eagles, persuaded Shaw to come out of football retirement and to take over the Eagles and a big rebuilding job.

To help Shaw, McNally got Van Brocklin, ready to quit the game following a dispute with Sid Gilman, then coach of the Rams.

The first year together the Shaw-Van Brocklin team had a 2-9-1 record. Last year it was 7-5. This year, as Van Brocklin put it, was the climax.

"I'll talk about my plans later," said Van Brocklin, who like a lot of Eagles fans must have been wondering how well the Eagles will move without the strong right arm of a 34-year-old Dutchman at the controls.

Ohio State Is Tops In Poll

The Braves, with a perfect 8-0 record, play Drake Tuesday and Dartmouth Friday.

NORTH BEATS SOUTH 41-14 IN SHRINE GAME

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Bill Brown of Illinois was a tireless work-horse. Bobby Fischer of Nebraska scintillated with his darting dashes. Henry Oppermann of Penn State had glue on his fingers and Tom Blanda of Army threw bulletseyes from his quarterback spot.

Those factors, combined with a rugged defense, proved the difference as the North All-Stars overwhelmed the South, 41-14, in the 13th annual Shrine football game in the Orange Bowl Monday night.

South led at the intermission 14-6, thanks to a pass from Bobby Skelton of Alabama which carried off a goalpost into the arms of John Schroeder of North Carolina, and to a 36-yard touchdown run by Skelton with an interception of a Blanda pass.

SCORED EARLY

North had scored the first time it got the ball, marching 62 yards in 13 plays. Northwestern's Mike Stock rolled over four yards for the touchdown.

North power began to assert itself in the second half, however. Brown — voted North's most valuable player — ripped steadily at the South line. Little Fischer was a wraith as he eled his way for huge yardage. Stock drove for big gains, and the evereffective Blanda and Oppermann combination clicked for vast yardage.

EVERYTHING CLICKS

Fischer gave a hint of what was to come when he raced 66 yards with the opening second-half kickoff, nearly getting away. The North clicked offensively with about everything it tried, and smothered the wilting south of offensive with vicious tackling and timely pass interceptions.

Skelton was voted South's outstanding player. He wound up with five completions in 12 passing attempts, in addition to his 37-yard touchdown sprint with an interception.

The victory was North's fifth in 13 games, with one game tied.

VAN BROCKLIN PASSING MADE VICTORY MARK

By JAMES WALTERS
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Is ball control the important thing in pro football? Not when you have a passer like Norm Van Brocklin, the Philadelphia Eagles proved again in their National Football League title game with Green Bay. The Packers had 77 running or passing plays to 48 for the Eagles, but the Eagles took home the playoff booty, 17-13.

Take the first quarter and most of the second. Green Bay dominated play, getting inside the Eagles' 10-yard line three times but being held to two field goals—by Paul Hornung.

Then, with a little more than eight minutes left in the half, the Eagles took over on their own 43. Van Brocklin flipped for 22 yards to slotback Tommy McDonald and a first down on the Packers' 35. Next McDonald broke loose around the Packer five and Van Brocklin hit him perfectly. Two plays, one touchdown, and when Bobby Walston kicked the extra point, the Eagles were in front 7-6.

MISSED 3-POINTER

After the kickoff, the Packers ran three plays and then Max McGee punted dead on the Eagle 26. First play: Van Brocklin to end Pete Retzlaff for 41 yards. Fullback Ted Dean picked up three over center, Van Brocklin missed on a pass and then it was Van Brocklin to Dean for 22 yards and a first down on the Green Bay 8-yard line. Van—who said this was his last pro game—missed on three passes. Walston then kicked a 15-yard field goal, giving the Eagles 10 points in less than four minutes.

Green Bay had the ball the rest of the half—after the kickoff—but Hornung's third down field goal attempt in the last seconds was wide.

CREDIT TO VAN

So here were the Packers trailing 10-6 after having the ball for 38 running or passing plays to Philadelphia's 22. The difference: Van Brocklin completed 6 of 13 passes for 133 yards while the Philadelphia runners picked up 31 yards in nine shots at the Green Bay line.

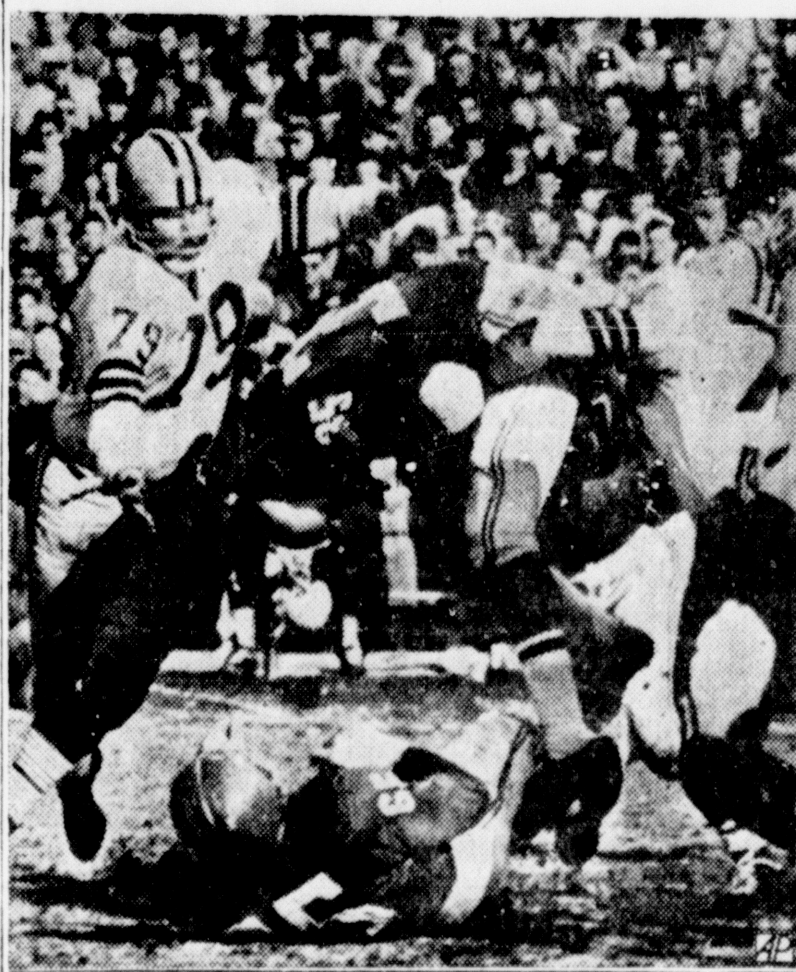

The Eagles wound up gaining a total of 99 yards on the ground in the entire game—on 28 running plays, Green Bay picked up 223 yards on 42 running plays. Van Brocklin had 197 yards passing—completing 9 of 20.

As Coach Vince Lombardi said in the Green Bay dressing room after the game: "Old Van completed them when the Eagles needed them. You have to give him credit."

LIGHT CARD FOR COUNTY CAGE TEAMS

Only three of Adams County's scholastic basketball teams have games scheduled for this week although others will be holding drills regularly in preparation for the resumption of full scale action next week.

Busiest of the teams in action will be Jack Bream's Littleton High Thunderbolts who will take part in the first annual Susquehanna tournament to be held Wednesday and Friday evenings. Other teams in the tournament will be Central and Dallastown.

Wednesday's opening game at 6:45 pits Central (2-2) against Dallastown (1-3) while the nightcap will send Littleton (2-2) against host Susquehanna (1-2).

Losers of Wednesday's games will meet in the consolation Friday at 6:45 with the winners clashing in the title affair in the second game.

OTHER GAMES

Fairfield High (1-3) takes on the alumni in their annual clash Wednesday evening with a girls' game serving as the preliminary. Delone Catholic has an engagement Wednesday evening, meeting Kennard-Dale on the latter's floor.

Unbeaten Gettysburg High (5-0) will be idle until next Tuesday when it takes on Hanover on the Nighthawks' floor in the opening game of the South Penn League.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Lee Ballantian, former National League umpire, has signed a contract to scout for the Houston National League baseball team, General Manager Gabe Paul announced today. He upired from 1936 until 1957.

Terhes Stars In Losing Grid Effort

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — As was expected, passing played a key role in Monday's third annual All-American Bowl, with the major school team tripping the small school players 25-12.

But the small school offense, directed by Paul Terhes of Bucknell, gave the crowd of 10,000 plenty of thrills before the major players iced their third straight victory.

Terhes matched his rival, Dick Norman of Stanford, completing 19 of 33 passes for 191 yards. However, he had four passes intercepted, with Warren Livingston of Arizona returning one 30 yards for a major school touchdown.

Norman pitched touchdown strikes of 41 and 33 yards to halfback Cal Bird of Kentucky. In all, Norman completed seven of 25 passes for 144 yards.

The small school players pulled to within 13-12 at the end of three quarters. The Purdue's Jim Tiller ran 26 yards for one score and Warren Livingston of Arizona intercepted a pass and ran 30 yards for the clincher.

Santa Anita Draws Record 71,017 Fans

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — The feature was modest and it was the day after Christmas. But Santa Anita Race Track drew a whopping crowd of 71,017 at the opening of its 35-day winter meeting.

This despite the usual financial drain of Christmas.

It was the largest attendance this year for a U.S. track, surpassing the 70,992 at Aqueduct in New York Memorial Day.

Ole Fols, with Willie Shoemaker up, won the feature, the Palos Averdes Handicap for a modest purse of $23,950.

The betting handle was $3,407,872.

Evans Returns As Carlisle Coach; Seeks Combination For South Penn Loop Race

By Bob Dugan
(One of a series of articles on prospects of South Penn Basketball teams.)

CARLISLE — As the cagers of Carlisle High School ended their pre-Christmas exhibition schedule with an even record in six outings, Coach Gene Evans was still looking for the right combination to represent the Herd in South Penn competition which opens on January 3.

The competent mentor who directed Carlisle to a District Three crown just two years ago, and then took off a year from coaching duties to further his own education, is planning a fast, sharp-shooting attack to offset the height advantage which most rivals will have over the Green and White.

Evans was pleased when his club opened with a decisive 78-49 victory over Cumberland Valley, but a second-half letdown resulted in a 43-42 loss to John Harris and Central Dauphin followed with a 48-42 triumph over the Herd.

Carlisle then returned home to edging Middletown 39-38 to maintain its unbeaten mark at home. William Penn of Harrisburg will provide the final test for Carlisle this Friday before South Penn plays opens at Biglerville next Tuesday.

OFFENSE BOGS

In each of the last two contests, Carlisle was held scoreless from the field for an entire quarter of action—a fact that is causing most of Evans' worries. He is satisfied with the club defensively, but it has not been consistent in the point-making department.

John Carns, Larry Black, Dave Lebo, Gary Heishman and Barry Debolt, all of whom played under interim coach Jim Bowers, provide Carlisle with experience, but only Debolt and Lebo, both at 6-1, give the Herd height. Heishman, at 5-8, is the smallest of the quintet, while Black is 5-10, and Carns an inch taller.

Lebo and Debolt are juniors, while Black, Carns and Heishman are 12th graders. The tallest boy on the squad is Dale Monismith, a 6-2 junior, but he has lacked the aggressiveness and ability under the boards to break into the starting lineup.

The only other senior is Ed Otto, a six-footer, who has been filling in capably at forward or center. Three juniors, Doug Boomershire, Bert Lane and Ben Breneman, all 5-10, complete the varsity squad.

Injuries Hit Blue, Gray Grid Players

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Illnesses and a knee injury have taken three players out of practice, at least temporarily, for the Dec. 31 Blue-Gray football game.

The South had two men out with a virus. Harry Moreland, a back from Texas Christian, was admitted to a Montgomery Hospital with a fever Monday.

Ed Xcredy, Louisiana State lineman, remained in bed at his hotel Monday but was expected to return to practice today.

The North's Paul Yanke, end from Northwestern, twisted a knee during Sunday's workout and was not in pads Monday. His status for Saturday's game was uncertain.

Hershey Shuts Out Springfield 4-0

Undated American Hockey League
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
After scoring in all 34 games this season, the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League finally ran up against some tight net minding and were shut out 4-0 by the Hershey Bears.

Goalie Al Miller applied the whitewash Monday night at Hershey, where the Bears moved into a triple tie for third place with Buffalo and Quebec, each with 31 points.

Miller made 32 saves in halting the league leading Indians, who had been averaging five goals per game.
Mike Nykoluk scored at 1:01 of the opening period in the only AHL game of the night. Ray Kinasevich and Claude Laforge made it 3-0 within 38 seconds in the second period, and Jack McKenzie got the final goal at 1:45 of the third session.

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A weekend fire caused damage estimated at $200,000 to the Bucknell University library. Most of the damage was confined to the roof. Fire Chief Donald Walter said electrical wiring may have started the Saturday fire, but said a further investigation would be needed to determine the exact cause.

Hit De Gaulle For War Ending Plans

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle's plan for ending the bloody Algerian war was attacked by two leading politicians Monday night as Moslem rioting continued in Oran, Algeria's second largest city.

Conservative leader Roger Ducloux and Radical Felix Gaillard, a Fourth Republic premier, used the state radio and television network to condemn De Gaulle's self-determination plan.

Both said the voters should be guided by their consciences in the Jan. 8 referendum, which will approve or reject De Gaulle's proposal for speedy self-government in Algeria, with the Moslem majority taking a much bigger part, and a referendum in the North African territory after peace is restored to decide on Algerian independence.

Moslems, European settlers and police clashed intermittently in Oran. Officials said one Frenchman was killed, five French and two Moslems were wounded.

WILL RESTORE 5-STAR RANK TO PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders are working quietly on a plan to restore President Eisenhower to his five-star general rank soon after he leaves the White House on Jan. 20.

They conceded privately that some opposition may arise because, as a former president, he also will be eligible for a $25,000 annual pension and office expenses of up to $50,000. Restored rank would pay $20,548 a year.

A special act of Congress would be required to restore the rank because Eisenhower resigned his permanent five-star commission in 1952 when he was first nominated by the Republicans.

CITE PRECEDENTS

Sponsors of the move to restore the rank point out that there are precedents for drawing two government retirement awards. Some civilian government workers have qualified for retirement after becoming eligible for military retirement pay.

After World War II, Congress approved an act that retained all five-star generals and admirals on active pay and duty as long as they lived. They also may have two military aides and office space in the Pentagon or elsewhere if they wish.

FRANCE FIRES 3RD ATOM BOMB SUCCESSFULLY

By GEORGE McARTHUR

PARIS (AP)—France successfully exploded her third experimental atomic device in the Sahara Desert today.

The test apparently was a step forward in cutting down the first two devices—exploded last Feb. 13 and April 1—to practical size for use in varied weapons. The Defense Ministry said today's explosion was "of small strength."

No details of the device were given, but the announcement said the shot took place "within the framework of the French military atomic program" at 7:30 a.m. and was a success.

The test apparently was above the surface, contrary to expectations that France would explode her next atomic instrument below ground.

ABOVE THE GROUND

The test may have been delayed to come after the adjournment of the U. N. General Assembly. Almost all the independent states of Africa have protested the French tests at Reggane, a desert area 1,500 miles south of Oran, Algeria.

ANOTHER STEP

The third test was one more step in President Charles de Gaulle's determined drive to gain France a voice in the exclusive "atomic club"—so far confined to the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

With the third explosion, he may now be able to claim U. S. aid in atomic development with more force. The U. S. McMahon act limits the sharing of American nuclear secrets to friendly nations that have made substantial progress in their own development. Previously only Britain qualified.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The South Korean army today retired 1,534 officers and noncommissioned officers as part of its plan to cut 30,000 men from the army. Each was given two years' salary.

manent officers of World War II now survive. They are Gens. Douglas MacArthur and Omar Bradley and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz.

Congressional leaders of both parties are expected to cooperate in the special legislation to restore Eisenhower's former military and pay status. They expect to sound out sentiment in both the Senate and House before making a public move.

Face Defiance From Socialist Leaders

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The Belgian government faced defiance from local Socialist officials today in its efforts to apply tougher measures to a persistent, crippling strike.

Socialist unions called the strike a week ago in protest against plans of the Social Christian-Liberal government to hike taxes and cut social welfare costs because of Belgium's financial losses in the Congo.

Rene Thone, acting governor of Hainaut Province, in southern Belgium, one of the areas hardest hit by the strike, rejected a government decree authorizing governors to call out troops to maintain order. Government officials said Jean Roland, director-general of the Interior Ministry, would replace him.

SAYS SAFE TO BUILD REACTOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $52.8 million atomic reactor can be operated at Peach Bottom, York County, Pa., without undue risk to the health and safety of the public, an advisory committee to the Atomic Energy Commission said Friday.

A report on reactor safeguards said however, "there are many questions that remain to be answered by the research and development program which is still in its early stages."

REQUIRE MAJOR CHANGES

"Several of these questions are in areas which could require major changes in the present design concepts and could conceivably change our early optimism," the report said.

The Philadelphia Electric Co. and 51 associated utilities are planning to build the reactor at Peach Bottom.

The AEC would contribute up to $17 million of the total cost for research and development.

The plant would have a designed capacity of 40,000 kilowatts. Philadelphia Electric on July 25 applied for a construction permit for the advance high-temperature gas-cooled nuclear power reactor.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union is going to help build a dam and 200,000-kilowatt power station on Ghana's Volta River, Pravda reported today.

A dispatch from the Soviet Communist party newspaper's correspondent in Accra said the Soviet aid would be extended under the cooperation and technical assistance agreement signed last summer. At that time, the Soviets agreed to lend President Kwame Nkrumah's government $40 million, but the Pravda dispatch did not indicate how much Soviet funds would be used on the Volta construction.

MOSCOW (AP)—The newspaper Soviet Russia suggested today that it is time President-elect John F. Kennedy answered Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's statement that the Soviet Union wants to improve relations with the United States.

The paper printed foreign comment from various neutralist and Socialist newspapers praising Gromyko's statement last week to the Supreme Soviet and demanding that Kennedy respond.

WARSAW (AP)—Poland today joined the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam in demanding the 1954 Indochina armistice conference be called back into session to end fighting in Laos. A Polish government statement said world peace is endangered by the Laotian situation and blamed interference by the United States and her allies.

FEATURE ON CAR CRASHES WAS TOO LATE

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—As Edward R. Murrow was winding up Monday night's "CBS Reports" about some of last summer's traffic accidents the network flashed on the screen the Christmas weekend total as it stood at 9 p.m.: 433 dead.

If there was one thing wrong with the hour-long, visually chilly program, it was its timing—too late. CBS could perform a real public service and perhaps save many lives if it repeated this program a number of times perhaps the night before some of the traditionally killing holidays.

But most of us who saw the show were snuggled safely in our own living rooms.

CBS's photographers and correspondents worked all over the country last Labor Day weekend filming some of the automobile accidents. They interviewed victims, safety commissioners and traffic officers. The last two named the causes as young drivers, drunken drivers, arrogant drivers, fast drivers, slow drivers, panicky and inexperienced drivers.

But they also pointed fearless fingers at the automobile manufacturers, calling for better and safer designs in cars, provisions for installations of safety belts or better still, belts as standard equipment and discussed the confusing and conflicting traffic regulations as well as the pros and cons of big horsepower and high speed built into many of today's vehicles.

It was a thought-provoking and most effective program.

Recommended tonight: "Thriller," NBC, 9-10 EST — "The Cheaters," with Mildred Dumnock and Harry Townes; "After Hours," NBC, 10-11—rerun of an amusing spoof on psychiatry, with Christopher Plummer and Sally Ann Howes.

STATE DAIRY INTERESTS ASK SUPERVISION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania dairy interests are asking that the incoming Democratic administration in Washington will press for a national agency to supervise the industry.

Such a move would have a broad economic effect on Pennsylvania's milk industry. Establishment of a national agency to regulate the nation's dairy industry has long been a goal of midwestern milk interests. They see it as a means of breaking into the huge eastern fluid milk markets.

FREEMAN BACKS PLAN

Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota—the incoming U. S. agriculture secretary—has been a leading backer of plans for a national agency. He testified in favor of enabling legislation during the last Congress. In the same series of hearings on the plan, the Pennsylvania Agriculture Department presented detailed testimony in opposition.

Legislation for a national control has been proposed in every Congress since World War II, but has never won passage of both houses.

The plans—nearly identical to the so-called Johnson bill in the last Congress—would put supervision of all milk sanitation under an expanded U. S. public health service.

A KEY FEATURE

A key feature of the plan would be that the U. S. standards and regulations could not be superseded by local or state rules. In other words, local quality controls would be eliminated.

The bills previously backed by

Freeman did not include any provisions for price regulation. Pennsylvania presently sets minimum producer and retail prices on milk sold in Pennsylvania. The federal government sets minimum producer prices in a number of cities—including Philadelphia. The jurisdiction of federal vs state milk control laws has never been tested.

But in the eyes of one leading Pennsylvania Agriculture Department milk expert, establishment of a federal milk supervision agency would:

"Very definitely open up the Pennsylvania markets to out-of-state competition."

ALLOW OWN STANDARDS

That was the meat of Pennsylvania's opposition before Congress.

The market most threatened in Pennsylvania would be Pittsburgh. Milk sanitation laws promulgated by the Allegheny County Health Department have worked as a bar to most mid-west production. Ohio producer and dealer groups have long had their eye on the rich southwestern Pennsylvania market area.

How do the local units bar outside competition?

The state milk laws allow communities to set up their own standards for milk production and distribution. A producer or dealer must pay the inspection expenses of an inspector from the community, if he wants to sell milk there, as well as meet the standards.

CUT OFF COMPETITION

The laws frequently have been used to cut off intrastate competition in some areas. For example in Lower Merion Twp., a suburb of Philadelphia, milk cannot be supplied to the community unless it comes from a bulk tank with an odd-sized outlet pipe. That provision eliminates most milk dealers from that specific area, since they use a standard-sized pipe.

Competition is limited.

However the biggest bar is to out-of-state competition. The costs of having Pennsylvania community inspectors travel to the mid-west at regular intervals, along with selective sanitation requirements, have blocked all but the most persevering dairymen seeking to profit in Pennsylvania markets.

THE BIG THREAT

Midwesterners frequently have complained about the restrictions in Pennsylvania and other eastern states serving the big-city fluid milk markets.
